AN ASSET TO ANY WORKGROUP

The e-STUDIO338cs is an asset to any business or workgroup that requires productivity, reliability and ease of use. This compact A4 multifunctional device offers remarkable image quality to give your documents the wow-factor.

Even challenging print jobs can be fulfilled, thanks to a clever range of options and solutions. For instance, a maximum paper capacity of 1,451 sheets ensures large print jobs run with ease. Additionally, you can achieve seamless wireless connectivity with the 802.11ac/56Hz dual band wireless print server module.

The tiltable, colour touch panel and keypad offer a straightforward way to access all of the device's functions and features. At Toshiba, we take the privacy of your data seriously, so an optional card reader can be added to the e-STUDIO338cs for an extra layer of security – giving you full control over who has access to sensitive business data.
